ARROWOOD ITEMS HOG KILLING TALK

(From our own correspondent)

The Lyle Poultry Farm was the scene of a "beau" vs. "lard type hog killing" Friday afternoon. Mr. Lyle and Mr. Fredrickson, the two promoters, were present with a truck load of hogs; some Yorkshire and some mixed-bred Tamworths. When the men had assembled to quill a number of hogs, the two promoters found they were escorted to the pens where Mack Lyle has some of his high class Tamworths as well as some of his stocky hogs. Mr. Fredrickson gave some extended talk concerning the merits of the true hog as compared to the Tamworths, the one making a comparison between the two, and the other in favor of the types. One of the hogs used as the representatives of the true hog type had been brought from Gleichen, then mounted on a sled and driven to the field of Christ Bartsch. The hog was of the mixed breeding, and was one which Mr. Lyle had sold Mr. Bartsch, and was the same hog which had been fed in the manner usually followed for obtaining a marketable hog of the lard type, but as Mr. Fredrickson said, "Lyle's hogs had developed into a marketable hog, even under the adverse feeding conditions." Mack Lyle holds that if the hogs are of the better class, the type that is best suited to the market, and if the case develops into the A1 bacon type even under adverse feeding conditions. After the address of Mr. Fredrickson, Mr. Lyle gave a short talk on the world wide markets of bacon, and showed by actual demonstration the characteristics of a true Yorkshire and a true Hammon and the United States farmers who produce the lard hog at a lesser cost per pound gain upon corn than can the Western Canadian farmers. He also said that in the case of the bacon hog, we have every advantage and that the field is open where the supply is in excess. He said that if we will, through careful breeding, attain the bacon standard as demanded by the bacon trade. After the two addresses and demonstrations, the men gathered around the sleds and witnessed the butchering of the hogs, seen upon the hood and observe in the first lecture. All were shown the chief characteristics while they had opportunities of examining the individuals when yet alive. Perhaps, some of the farmers learned something of the proper way to clean the hogs.

A talk of the two men are just an example of the many ways the Duncou Goules are increasing the western farmers to develop the prairies to the height of which they are capable of raising in an agricultural way.

The home of G. P. Williams was the scene of a party given as a surprise to Mrs. Williams Friday evening.

Something like twenty-five of the neighbors and other guests were present. Various games and contests were the order of the evening until eleven o'clock when five hundred was played until midnight when the funds were $1,000.

The Alberta Government is offering savings certificates for sale in this issue, including the price of interest. The certificates can be purchased from $100.00 up to $1,000.00 in increments of $100.00.

GLEICHEN'S INCREASED BUSINESS

In our town, these days, we see faces that are strange to us, faces that are not familiar in our town. People from distant parts of the district drive in to inspect and ascertain personally the worth and reliability of the pledges that are made from time to time to the public by means of advertising by poster notices and in the local paper. Generally those strangers are heavy buyers and return homeward well satisfied with the results of their long trip.

This is the finest and highest recommendation that can be given to us, faces men and should be the source of their keenest pride and gratification. It proves that they have backed up their promises and redeemed their pledges, and that they were able to, as they hoped, meet the expectations of those who respond to their invitations and took them at their word. It proves further, that these messengers of the public, in their form or another—newspapers—"salesmen" are bringing them the hoped for results in the form of increased popularity, increased number of customers and increased business.

THE NEW EGG LAW

There are many store keepers throughout the Dominion who are now taking a deep interest in the grading and marking of their eggs. This is now necessary on account of the regulations "respecting the grading and marking of eggs" but in a great many instances the interest extended to the fact that it is necessary to take the store keepers indifference, but this is largely an indifference born of ignorance—an ignorance of the fact that eggs deteriorate rapidly and must of necessity be checked from day to day as to their freshness. Of these indifferent storekeepers investigation shows that probably 90 per cent buy their eggs direct from the country shippers and to them an egg from the country cannot be anything but fresh. The fact that an egg is graded as fresh never occurs to them, but inspectors of the Department of Live Stock Branch, Department of Agriculture find that an actual candling and grading demonstration will as a general rule serve to convert even the most skeptical.

An inspector noticing eggs in a basket on the counter of a retail store in one of our large cities went in and candled some of the eggs and in one three dozen lot he found 2 dozen and a half were seconds and a half dozen were firsts. He then took the eggs for examination and examined and then showed five dozen and three extras, six dozen and one first, eight dozen seconds, six eggs cracked, two eggs bad. The eggs examined in each instance were very variable in quality and would not give satisfaction to consumers. One of the first objects of the regulations "respecting the grading and marking of eggs" affecting eggs moving in domestic consumption is that eggs should be graded by the consumer and grades be marked so that they be sold separately so that a consumer wishing to buy a dozen extras may feel perfectly safe and not find cracked, bad or other grades in the dozen. When buying eggs consumers should, therefore, ask for them by their grade name, and the grades of fresh are: specials; extras; and firsts and seconds.

GLEICHEN CALL, GLEICHEN ALBERTA

With the completion of the harbor at Gleichen, the town will be in a much better position in 1928 to handle a record fleet of grain elevators. When completed the grain elevator will be increased by 1,200 bushels per minute, making its total capacity 8,250,000 bushels per day. Four more elevators will be provided at this elevator and will be in commission early next month. The value of the grain elevator will be increased from $60,000 to $60,000.

Reports to the Canadian Pacific Railway, show that there arrived at Winnipeg from the British Isles a large number of workmen on the harvest, 11,885 men, and that the number of men to find occupation for as many as possible is 15,000. It is stated that it is now probable that a considerable number of these men will be employed in the Gleichen area, and that the Irish Free State will remain in the market for a long time.

Addressing a recent meeting of the Vancouver Board of Trade, President C. W. Peatty, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announced that the company proposed immediately to increase its grain elevator to its cost limit in order to meet the increased grain traffic over the company's coastal lines. He also announced the early completion of the new grain elevator at a cost of several millions, and that the new elevator will be in the steady development of Canada's trans-Pacific trade.

The total western Canadian wheat crop has been estimated at 446,570,000 bushels, the Alberta average being far ahead of the other provinces, Manitoba being 12 1/2 and Saskatchewan 19 3/4—Market Examiner.

Bavarian Government Has Been Overthrown By Monarchist Leader

Monarchs—The Bavarian government has been declared overthrown by Adolf Hitler, the Fuehrer's leader, and the administration placed in the hands of Gen. von Lautenbacher, as commander-in-chief.

Dr. Von Kahr, the military dictator in Bavaria, had just issued an address to the people of Bavaria, in which he declared, "a famous Bavarian is still alive, when Hitler entered the castle of the dead." The leader announced that the Bavarian government had been overthrown and was replaced by a new government with Gen. Lautenbacher as supreme head, and Gen. von Lautenbacher as his chief of staff.

Berlin.—The Reich Government has issued a manifesto to the German people saying it has returned to reconstitute the Bavarian government, and the German government, and announcing that all measures have been taken to stamp out rebellion in Bavaria.
